

Paris, March 9, 2010. Back at home in Paris, after an extraordinary journey to Guinea-Bissau on my motorcycle: nearly 5,300 km through seven countries (Portugal, Spain, Morocco, Mauritania, Senegal, The Gambia, & Guinea-Bissau) and one occupied territory (Western Sahara.) What an incredible experience! it was! (Look down below on this page for a link to a photo album with a selection of photos from this trip.)

Now it's time to settle down a bit. Soon the kids will be here on their Easter breaks. Lucy also has a week off during the kids' vacation, so let's see what will happen.

Stay tune. Until the next one.

BRgds, Jorge