

Lisbon, Jun 19, 2011. I know, it has been a long time since the last update! It is that I have been extremely busy with my book! If things go the way I would like them to go, by the end of this month (June), I should be done with it! At that time I will be able to move on to new (and hopefully better) stuff!

Otherwise, everything is absolutely perfect! Lucy is still enjoy her not-so-new-by-now job at the Embassy here; Ben is now working in the UK, and so far so good; Filipa is now back in Lisbon with us for her (rather long) summer vacation; and I spend my days working on the ... book!

I also have to report the addition of a new "family member:" just before leaving Paris, I bought a classic (and classy) Vespa 150 from 1963! (See photo below.) I am now in the process of having her legalized and registered here in Portugal. As soon as that is done, I will have yet one more mode of transportation available for more adventures!!!

Stay tuned. Until the next one. Jorge
