

Chevy Chase, Feb 14, 2014 Here we are after yet one more snow storm! (For some pics of this last one, see below.) This winter has been difficult! ...a gorgeous brand new motorcycle down in the garage, an extremely long list of places-to-visit in the US, and not able to leave the house! It isn't so much just the plain old regular cold. For that you put on a warmer jacket and that's that. It is the polar vortexes, and the snow storms, and the ice storms... Enough!!!
