

Cotonou, Nov 22, 2016 Finally, the Postcard that had been promised for a while now! The problem has been a rather busy agenda. We got back home from the Azores and immediately after, we were in Abomey, celebrating the 46th anniversary of the independence of the Republic of Benin.

Shortly after that, we were on the road yet again, now to visit some friends in Ghana and Togo. Remarkably, this was our first "long-ish" trip on our own set of wheels (in this case, the Animal, our Nissan 4WD).

And then, there were visits here, and there, and everywhere really, along the coast. In October, I found myself on the plane to Europe again, this time to Cyprus, for the marriage of a friend's daughter. What an event; what great people; what a great place!!! Photos in here sometime soon, I promise!

Now is Thanksgiving, and then getting ready for Christmas. Our second here in Cotonou. As they say, time flies when you are having fun!!!!

Cheers.
